

Persons encountering health services in other circumstances, external causes of morbidity and mortality

