Effects of foreign body entering through natural orifice, poisoning and certain other consequences of external causes

